Acuña, Hoetz & Cifuentes

Acting for high-profile global insurers, Lloyd's syndicates and insurance brokers, boutique specialists Acuña, Hoetz & Cifuentes is particularly focused on high-value loss claims both during the adjustment and settlement stages, as well as in subsequent judicial proceedings, arbitrations and complex subrogation actions. The team acted for AIG Chile in an arbitration initiated by Gasandes concerning losses suffered by its 463km-long trans-Andean gas pipeline. It also advised two insurers on recovery actions against urban highway concessionaire Costanera Norte, its contractor Sacyr, and the Chilean Ministry of Public Works, regarding losses (affecting dozens of office and residential buildings in Santiago) caused by flooding following the diversion of the Mapocho River during construction works. Senior partner Alejandro Acuña has advised on the most significant losses to have occurred in Chile over the last 30 years; Felipe Hoetz and Luis Cifuentes are also highly rated; and Pia Parmar is a key associate.
